

U.S. Embassy Sarajevo
Ron Brown Apprentice Program
Business Plan Competition

Deadline: February 12, 2012

What?

The US Embassy to Bosnia and Herzegovina is seeking entries from university students for the Ron Brown Apprentice Program. Through the program, the Embassy invites BiH university students to come up with the next Facebook, Apple iPhone, or hybrid car. The program aims to promote entrepreneurship, the development of sound business practices, and the promotion of the free market system in Southeast Europe. The winners of the competition in Bosnia and Herzegovina will then go on to compete against other students in Croatia, Serbia, Montenegro, Macedonia, and Kosovo in a region-wide competition for the best business plan. The competition is envisioned in the format of Donald Trump's The Apprentice, in that successful businesspeople in the region will evaluate the projects against one another blindly.

Why Apply?

- The top 3 submissions of the Ron Brown Apprentice Program contest will travel to Opatija, Croatia to attend the Ron Brown Forum: Economic Opportunities at the Municipal Level, April 2-4. In Opatija, students will compete against their counterparts in the region for three prizes.
- An iPad will be awarded to the winner for first prize for the best business plan. An iPhone will be awarded as the second prize, and an iPod will be awarded as the third prize.

Where and How?

- The name of the country should not be mentioned in the abstract. The business plan should be one that can be applied elsewhere.
- Submissions must be sent to no later than February 12, 2012. A panel of Embassy experts will select the winners for the BiH competition, who will be notified by February 28.
